

Thinking About Thinking – Quiz

Name: _____

This quiz is for your use. You can have all your students fill it out at the beginning of class as a pretest and then revisit it later. You can also use it as a discussion starter or you can shred it and use it in the hamster cage.

1) Our brains are like social magnets. We are almost always thinking about other people.

- A) True
- B) False

2) It is pretty important that we keep track of other people around us.

- A) True
- B) False

3) People are usually 100% accurate when they guess how another person is thinking.

- A) True
- B) False

4) How other people talk to us can influence how we feel about ourselves.

- A) True
- B) False

5) Match the definition with the correct word

_____ Being open to other people's ideas in a group

a) polite

_____ Saying "please" and "thank you"

b) respectful

_____ When we listen carefully to what another person has to say.

c) cooperation

6) If someone is standing near us and they look odd or strange, we might have what kind of thought about them?

- A) practical thought
- B) fanatical thought
- C) weird thought
- D) sunny thought