

Thinking About Thinking – Quiz Answers

1) Our brains are like social magnets. We are almost always thinking about other people.

A) True

B) False

2) It is pretty important that we keep track of other people around us.

A) True

B) False

3) People are usually 100% accurate when they guess how another person is thinking.

A) True

B) False

4) How other people talk to us can influence how we feel about ourselves.

A) True

B) False

5) Match the definition with the correct word

c Being open to other people's ideas in a group

a) polite

a Saying "please" and "thank you"

b) respectful

b When we listen carefully to what another person has to say.

c) cooperation

6) If someone is standing near us and they look odd or strange, we might have what kind of thought about them?

A) practical thought

B) fanatical thought

C) weird thought

D) sunny thought